TIMELESS STYLE AND DURABILITY

Fireclay sinks have a fresh, modern look that is equally at home in traditional décor as it is in cozy urban design.

FASHIONABLY FUNCTIONAL

Farmhouse sinks, also known as apron front sinks, make a style statement because the beautifully finished, glossy material extends to the front of the sink, running alongside the lower base cabinets.

These sinks also offer an ergonomically friendly design with no counter between you and the bowls. This brings you closer to the sink so there is no leaning over during meal prep or other tasks.

REVERSIBLE DESIGN

Elkay® elevates style to the next level with our reversible farmhouse sinks that offer two design statements. These sinks can be installed with either a traditional flat front or with a decorative band feature across the top – the choice is yours!

ELKAY® FIRECLAY OFFERS

STRENGTH: The finest fireclay is fired at high temperatures for long-lasting durability that is scratch and stain resistant.

STYLE: Finished with a beautiful, porcelain glaze for a smooth, glossy surface that is easy to clean.

REVERSIBLE DESIGN: Farmhouse sinks can be installed with either a traditional flat front or with a decorative band feature across the top.

NONPOROUS MATERIAL: No worry of bacteria sticking to the surface or spreading.

QUIET: The material naturally minimizes sound and reduces condensation.

DRAIN FITTINGS: These sinks use standard drain fittings; sold separately.

BOTTOM GRIDS: We offer custom-sized grids, with properly positioned drain openings, to cover the bottom of Elkay sink bowls.
