Crosstown[®] Stainless Steel Sinks: 10" Farmhouse Apron and Workstation

The popular Crosstown[®] stainless steel sink collection now offers two new options – workstation sinks and extended-length farmhouse apron sinks. The new workstation design accommodates custom-sized accessories and maximizes workspace in the kitchen. Slide accessories back and forth along the built-in sink ledge to transition from washing and chopping to straining and even clean up. The 10" tall farmhouse apron sink provides a traditional farmhouse look that makes an impression in the kitchen.

Crosstown sinks are the ultimate mix of beauty and function. Creased accent lines in the sink bowl, offer a professional look ideal for any décor. Smaller radius corners make Crosstown easy to clean – and a flat bottom with offset drain provide more space for stacking dishes. Crafted from 16- or 18-gauge thickness and Type 304 stainless steel for lasting durability, performance. Sound Guard[®] sound-deadening pads minimize sound and vibration for a quieter time at the sink.

The Elkay Difference

Extra-deep Bowl: High-capacity bowl offers more room inside for filling stockpots, and handling large baking sheets and roasters

Offset Drain: Drain placement provides more usable space on the bottom of the sink and in the cabinet below

Workstation Style Sink

Workstation Ledge: Slide accessories along built-in sink ledge to optimize your workspace; go from meal prep to clean up in seconds

Custom Accessories Included: With a striking acacia wood cutting board, rich in color and texture; complete with matching wood-handled colander and stainless steel drying rack, roll-up drying rack, bottom grid(s) and drain(s)

10" Farmhouse Apron Sink

Traditional Farmhouse: Sink's apron is 10" tall for a traditional farmhouse look
